A screenshot of a mobile application interface showing a form with five empty input fields. The form is titled with a blue header bar containing a back arrow on the left and a 'Go' button on the right. The fields are labeled 'Athlete Region', 'Age Group at Camp', 'Agency Name', 'Media Category', and 'Campaign'. Each field has a right-pointing arrow icon to its right. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Reset' and 'Clear'.

A screenshot of the same mobile application interface, but now the form fields are filled with data. The 'Athlete Region' field contains 'Australia', the 'Age Group at Camp' field contains '20 - 24', and the 'Media Category' field contains 'WebView'. A hand cursor is pointing at the 'Go' button in the top right corner. The 'Reset' and 'Clear' buttons are no longer visible at the bottom.
