A screenshot of a 'Language Settings' configuration dialog. At the top, there's a heading '言語設定' with a small upward arrow icon to its right. Below it is a section titled '多言語展開' with the sub-instruction: 'コンテンツの翻訳は有効です。他の言語で表示される代替テキストを提供することをユーザーに許可します。'. A blue toggle switch is turned on to the right of this text. Further down, there's a '言語' section with the instruction: 'コンテンツの翻訳に使用する言語を指定します。'. Underneath this, there's a list of languages: 'English (Australia) X', 'Japanese X', and 'Spanish (Spain)' which is currently selected, indicated by a blue checkmark icon. To the right of the language names are small downward and upward arrows, and a plus sign icon.
